REPORTS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

In presenting this our annual report to the Conference on the all-important subject of Bible distribution, your committee are happy to say that we, as a Conference, are as much as ever assured of the great worth of the Holy Scriptures as the only source of true civilization, and of ultimate salvation, and the infallible authority in all matters of faith and practice, and the safeguard of all private and public morals; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the American Bible Society furnishes all needed facilities for the general distribution of the word of God among our people.

2. That we will gladly welcome and heartily coöperate with the authorized agents of the Bible Society in their godly work.

Your committee have received the following reports from the preachers of money collected for the Bible: Columbia Circuit, Rev. J. W. Dickson, in cash, $5.75; Cokesbury Circuit, Rev. J. W. Kelly, $7, sent to agent; Belmont Circuit, Rev. J. B. Wilson, $12.50, sent to agent.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The necessity for well-regulated, intensified, and continued effort in the Sunday-school cause is the imperative demand of the Church. Neglect in any degree impedes the healthy and intelligent growth of the Church. While some advance has been made the past year, yet the field is white unto the harvest, and the children all through the bounds of the South Carolina Conference are hungering for food to nourish spiritual life. Many schools are without libraries, and many libraries need renewal. Indeed, the wonder is how we have been able to hold our own, much less make any gains in numbers. Statistics for 1882 show 575 schools, 3,657 officers and teachers, and 26,962 pupils—a gain of 18 schools, 259 officers and teachers, and 1,476 pupils. Volumes in libraries, 17,568; money expended for schools, $5,449—an increase of $890; therefore,

1. Resolved, That this Conference recognizes, with gratitude to God, the growing interest in the cause of Sunday-schools in our bounds.

2. That we pledge ourselves to increasing efforts and interest in this important branch of Church-work.

3. That the Rev. R. C. Oliver be appointed Sunday-school Secretary for this Conference.

4. That this Conference recommend the first Saturday in May as Children's Day, to be observed throughout our bounds in such manner as shall be thought best by the pastors in charge. H. F. CHREITZBERG, Secretary S. S. Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The time has come for this Conference to clothe in living forms and put in force its utterances in resolutions touching the temperance question offered at its annual sessions. Signals have been raised, warnings given, together with the fearful record of the ravages of the liquor traffic. The voice of lamentation and mourning swells on every hand over the impending disgrace and ruin of thousands of the brightest and best of our countrymen. Yet the traffic in intoxicants has reached colossal proportions, intrenched itself in every city, county, and State, backed by immense capital and numberless men; is establishing itself by legislative enactments, and a will which seems to exert itself in herculean efforts to make every thing submissive to its dictatorial assumptions.

The measures now proposed by the anti-prohibition party indicate at once that if the Church intends to do any thing at all, it must arouse itself, buckle on the armor of aggressive warfare, and go forth in the potent name of Jesus Christ, and exorcise this demon and rescue our countrymen; therefore,

1. Resolved, That, as a Conference, we reäffirm our utterances on this subject, and pledge our earnest coöperation with every laudable effort to stay the progress of this evil, and banish it from public favor.

2. That we, as ministers of the gospel, will preach and lecture upon the subject, and thus try to formulate a healthy Christian prohibition sentiment among the people.

3. That the third Sabbath in November, 1883, be set apart by this Conference for special and earnest prayer to Almighty God for his blessing upon the efforts making for prohibition.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report:

The success attending our Publishing House at Nashville is a source of gratulation. The judicious management of our Book Agent, together with the indomitable energy and financial ability of the Business Manager, places this institution on a firmer basis than it has hitherto attained, and with the continued success which has attended our Publishing House for the past few years, it will soon stand as a monument to the wisdom of its managers. Your committee commend our Publishing House to the patronage of every Methodist in South Carolina, and would urge upon our ministry the importance of increased energy in obtaining for it the patronage it merits.

The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, supplies a want in our Church, and we recommend it to the liberal patronage of our people.

Our Sunday-school Literature ought to be in every Sunday-school within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference. We regret that this is not so. Cheap literature obtained elsewhere is found in some of our Sunday-schools. We therefore urge upon our preachers to look well to this important matter, and see to it that our own literature is used in every one of our Sunday-schools.

The Advocate of Missions, also published in Nashville, is an excellent missionary paper, and merits the patronage of the whole Church.

The Woman's Missionary Advocate, edited by Mrs. F. A. Butler, at Nashville, was first issued July, 1880, without any capital, and it has now a circulation of about eight thousand copies, of which seven hundred and eighty-three are taken in South Carolina. This little paper has not only sustained itself, but has yielded a revenue to the missionary treasury of fifteen hundred dollars. What other paper can exhibit a better record? We earnestly commend it, and hope soon to see it in the family of every Southern Methodist household.

The Quarterly Review, edited and published by the Rev. J. W. Hinton, D.D., at Macon, Ga., is commended to the patronage of our people, with the hope that it may be improved, as its editor, in his circular, assures us it shall be.

The Southern Christian Advocate, our Conference organ, ought to be in every Methodist family within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference. While we take pleasure in saying that it is doing well, we wish to see its usefulness greatly enlarged. Rev. S. A. Weber, its editor, is the right man in the right place. He is making the Advocate a worthy companion of every Methodist household. The publishers, Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, have, since our last Conference, entered into a new contract, to continue two years from December 31, 1882, with the Publishing Committee of the South Carolina Conference, under very favorable terms. Its subscription price has, since last July, been reduced to $2, thus putting it within the reach of all. We pledge our cordial and earnest support, and will endeavor to enlarge its subscription list.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education beg respectfully to submit the following report:

Two facts arrest the attention of the committee. The one is the humiliating illiteracy of the State. Almost one-fourth of the whole population, and fully one-half of the colored people of the commonwealth, cannot read or write. Turning from the civil and social evils which spring from this appalling ignorance, we would call attention to the fact that it rests as a crushing weight upon the Church, threatening her spiritual life, and partially paralyzing her activities in every field of Christian enterprise. The Church must protect herself. She must protect society. She is God's appointed guardian of the true interests of this world. She must foster institutions of learning, or permit herself to be clogged by ignorance and superstition in her efforts to triumph over evil.

The second fact which should arrest the attention of the Conference is that education is at this moment at a crisis in the State. The Church must now move forward and take her place in the advancing lines, or retreat and see her strong positions occupied by the State in her determination to give educational facilities to her children.

The Church must maintain her institutions of learning. She stands pledged to her denominational colleges. But what can be done? She needs ample endowments for them. She is now holding them to her barren bosom, vainly attempting to give them subsistence, while her people are withholding the means by which alone they are to live and thrive.

At no former period has the Church in South Carolina been called upon with such strong emphasis as at this moment to make strenuous and united efforts to place Wofford College beyond all contingencies, that she may throw open her doors for free tuition. The Church should make the college the foster-mother of the young men who are hereafter to occupy her pulpits, and take high positions in the commonwealth of Israel.

The committee, after mature deliberation, and consultation with the Trustees of Wofford College, respectfully submit the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That during the next two years the Conference raise for Wofford College an endowment fund of one hundred thousand dollars; and that this fund shall be known as the Centennial Endowment of Wofford College.

2. That in order to carry out the foregoing resolution, the Conference instruct each preacher to appoint a small committee in each church of his charge to aid him in taking up a collection of at least one dollar for each member for two years.

3. That the presiding elders are hereby requested to make inquiry under the head of "Miscellaneous Business," at Quarterly Conference, what amount has been collected during the quarter on the Centennial Endowment of Wofford College.

4. That the Conference request the Financial Secretary of Wofford College to give, if practicable, more of his time to assisting the preachers in this work, and to adopt such means as in his judgment will more efficiently carry out the foregoing resolutions.

5. That the Conference earnestly solicit—yea, demand—the hearty coöperation of all her ministers and members at this crisis in the vital attempt to secure the most approved education for the children of the Church.

6. That the Conference constitute the Committee on Education "The Board of Education," as provided in the Discipline, for the present session of the Conference.

The amount raised on the assessment for education last year is $2,274.88.

The committee recommend an assessment of $4,000 for the ensuing year, to be applied to Wofford College.

The Rev. Samuel A. Weber has been appointed to preach the annual sermon before the undergraduates of the Conference at the next session.

The committee respectfully request the Bishop to make the following appointments: W. Smith and W. W. Duncan, Professors in Wofford College; O. A. Darby, President of Columbia Female College; A. M. Shipp, Professor in Vanderbilt University; S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College.

There are three institutions of learning under the immediate supervision of the Conference:

I. Wofford College.

This institution has entered upon its twenty-eighth collegiate year. It still maintains its high character of scholarship, and has become one of the sheet-anchors of the Church in this State. The salubrious climate, the health and moral tone of the students, together with all the advantages of high culture and religious association, invite the liberal patronage of the Church. More than one hundred students were enrolled during the last term. All the indications give promise of continued success in the working of the college machinery under the able presidency of James H. Carlisle, supported by an able corps of professors.

II. Columbia Female College.

This institution has been giving during the year satisfactory evidences of a successful career.

There have been enrolled during the last term sixty-four boarding and fifty-eight day pupils.

The interest on the heavy bonded debt has been promptly met, and the balance of assets over liabilities is $6,700.19.

Strict attention is paid to the moral as well as intellectual advancement of the pupils.

The college, under the presidency of Rev. O. A. Darby, D.D., supported by twelve competent instructors, is every way worthy of the cordial patronage of the Methodist community.

III. Cokesbury Conference School.

This old institution of learning has taken new life under the rectorship of Prof. C. C. Reid. Sixty students have enrolled during the year. The school has been converted into a mixed school for boys and girls, and it offers a substantial education, from the primary department up to a preparation for college. The institution should have a more liberal patronage.

ART. IV. The funds of this Board shall be derived from contributions from the parent Board, from collections taken by each preacher in every congregation, donations, and bequests.

ART. V. This Board shall hold a regular meeting at each session of the Annual Conference, at which regular meeting provision shall be made for anniversary expenses. Special meetings may be held on call of the Executive Committee. Five members of the Board shall be a quorum at a regular and three at a special meeting.

The names of the Board of Trustees. 6. The number of Church-members, Sunday-school children, and population of the place, if within a town or city. 7. Any additional facts that may be required by the Board, or that may be deemed necessary or useful to the Board in making a decision. In no case shall the Treasurer pay money to aid any church-building until ordered to do so by the Executive Committee, and in no case shall the Executive Committee make an order for such payment till furnished with a written certificate from the recorder of deeds for the county in which the building is being erected, showing that a warranty deed, conveying the site of the church-edifice in fee simple to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is on record, and also a written certificate from the Trustees of such church-building, assuring the committee that the payment asked for from this Board will speedily open the house for use, free from debt.

ART. VII. The Board, in its regular meeting, shall apportion among the presiding elders' districts the amounts assessed upon the Conference by the parent Board, and the district stewards are instructed to apportion the assessments upon the districts among the several charges of the same.

ART. VIII. This Constitution shall not be amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the Board and upon ratification by the Conference.

J. A. PORTER, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF "HISTORY OF METHODISM IN SOUTH CAROLINA."

The committee which was appointed at the last session of the Conference to arrange for the publication of the "History of Methodism in South Carolina," prepared by the Rev. A. M. Shipp, D.D., beg leave to submit the following report:

The committee made favorable terms with the Southern Methodist Publishing House in Nashville, the House to receive the proceeds of the sale of the book until the cost of publication be met, after which the stereotype-plates are to become the property of the Conference; and all profits then arising from the sale of the book to be turned over to the Conference, according to the wish of the generous author of the history, for disbursement among the aged preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers under the care of the Conference.

In view of the above arrangement, the committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the whole matter referred to in the foregoing report be now transferred from this body to the Legal Conference.

J. T. WIGHTMAN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Secretary of the Board of Missions of the South Carolina Conference begs leave to submit the following report:

At the final meeting of the Board, a year ago, the Bishop presiding informed the Board, through his secretary, that, after a thorough canvass of the wants of the work within the bounds of the Conference, he found that he would need $6,950 to supply the work with suitable and available preachers. This amount was allowed by the Board, and the appropriation was distributed among the charges according to the suggestions made by the Bishop and his advisers. Twenty-one of the charges proposed to be aided by these appropriations, for reasons satisfactory to the Bishop, still retain the name of circuits. In view of their present needs and their probable early development into self-sustaining charges, they were considered proper objects of the aid of the Board.

The Board thoroughly canvassed the work of the nominal mission fields, with the following result:

Charleston District.—St. Stephen's Mission was supplied by the Rev. James W. Murray. There are two regular preaching-places, 69 white members, 1 Sunday-school, 3 officers and teachers, and 198 pupils. Eight infants and two adults baptized. There is one church-building. The Board recommend that this mission be continued.

St. Paul's Mission was supplied by the Rev. E. B. Pooser. There are three preaching-places—one Union church, and one belonging to the mission. The Board recommend that this mission be discontinued.

Orangeburg District.—Edisto Mission was served by the Rev. M. M. Ferguson. There are 96 members, 29 conversions, 8 accessions, 4 adults baptized. There are 2 Sunday-schools, and 100 pupils. Collected for preacher in charge, $35.20; for presiding elder, $5; Conference collections, $2. The Board recommends that this mission be continued.

Columbia District.—Columbia City Mission was served by the Rev. L. M. Little. There are 37 members, 5 infants baptized, 1 Sunday-school, 5 officers and teachers, 96 pupils, 183 volumes. Collected for Sunday-schools, $30.25; for other benevolent purposes, $24. A lot has been secured and paid for, on which is a small house now used as a chapel. About $300 in cash and subscription is in hand for the erection of a church-building. The mission was never more prosperous. The Board recommends its continuance.

Saluda Mission was served by the Rev. J. C. Counts. Two church-buildings —a debt of $300 on one of these has been paid—86 members, 2 Sunday-schools, 9 officers and teachers, 90 pupils, 21 infants and 7 adults baptized. Collected for preacher in charge, $90; Foreign Missions, $2.50; Domestic Missions, $2.50; for Sunday-schools, $15. The Board recommends that this mission be discontinued.

Florence District.—Scranton Mission was served by the Rev. H. J. Morgan. There are 3 societies, 7 appointments, 54 members, 1 local preacher, 4 infants and 3 adults baptized; 3 Sunday-schools; 11 officers and teachers; 80 pupils; 1 parsonage (built this year), valued at $1,500. Collected for preacher in charge, $131; for presiding elder, $10; Conference collection, $3; Foreign Missions, $3.66; Domestic Missions, $1.50; Bishops' Fund, 51 cents; Minutes, 30 cents; Sunday-schools, $16.70; building and repairs, $303.73; other benevolent enterprises, $3. The Board recommends that this mission be continued.

Spartanburg District.—Spartanburg City Mission was served by the Rev. J. F. Smith. There is one church-building and two side appointments, 112 members, 2 Sunday-schools, 100 pupils. Collected for general purposes, $50. The Board recommend that this mission be continued.

The following new missions were recommended: Charleston District, Charleston City Mission; Orangeburg District, Aiken Mission; Cokesbury District, Parksville Mission; Florence District, Black Creek Mission; Greenville District, Pickens Mission and Wahalla Mission.

In our last report we noted the zeal that had been awakened among us in behalf of Foreign Missions. It is now our pleasure to report that this zeal has been rapidly increasing, and we hope it will soon reach the point of well-sustained enthusiasm. The amount contributed the present year for this cause is in excess of the amount contributed for it last year, but even this does not give a full idea of the Christian zeal of our people. I would respectfully refer to the report of our Treasurer for an accurate statement of figures.

It is with pleasure I announce the satisfactory advancement of our missionary in Brazil, the Rev. J. W. Koger. He has been preaching in the Portuguese language for about a year with increasing acceptability. He has recently been appointed Superintendent of the Mission in Brazil.

Respectfully submitted. A. J. STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the several District Conferences of the South Carolina Conference, would submit the following report:

The committee has been furnished with the records from the districts of Orangeburg, Columbia, Sumter, Florence, Marion, Spartanburg, and Cokesbury.

The records of the Orangeburg District Conference are without the signature of the President of the Conference. In every other respect they deserve favorable mention.

The records of Columbia District Conference do not state what denomination the Conference belongs to, nor in what church or house it held its sessions, nor the names of those who composed it. On page 203 it is stated that "on motion, the P. E., P. C., and Jno. Buchanan were appointed a committee," etc. The words should be written in full instead of in abbreviated form. Abbreviations are too frequent all through this journal. On page 212 there is no mention of the calling of the roll at the morning session, nor is previous mention made of a motion to dispense with the same. The marginal lines of the journal are not regarded by the Secretary, neither does he sign his name to the minutes, but the name of the Assistant Secretary. The handwriting of the journal, however, is neatly executed.

In the minutes of Sumter District Conference no mention is made of those who answered to their names, nor whether the roll was called at all. Also, the Secretary's name is where the President's name should be, and vice versa. With these exceptions, this journal is to be mentioned with special commendation.

The records of the Florence District Conference bear evidence of having been hurriedly written, no regard being paid to punctuation, matters having no connection with each other being crowded together in one sentence, and the practice of abbreviating carried too far for good journalism; as, for instance, on page 98, where we are told that "one miss. was served by Brother," etc., instead of "one mission was served," etc.; "5 s. s. on miss. and 2 on ct.," instead of "five Sunday-schools on mission and two on circuit;" "G. Hoffmeyer from Tim.," when we suppose the meaning is "G. Hoffmeyer, from Timmonsville." At the bottom of page 101 four lines are cut from the leaf, entirely destroying the sense, and on page 103 it is stated that "the usual complimentary resolutions were passed," without saying to whom—whether the retiring presiding elder, the citizens of the place, or the railroads. There is no roll or statement of members present, nor is the journal signed by the presiding officer.

In the records of the Marion District Conference there is no statement of the denomination or Church to which the Conference belongs, no mention made of the calling of the roll, or of a previous motion to omit the same, nor is the name of the President of the Conference signed to the proceedings, nor can the journal be commended on the score of neatness.

On the records of the Spartanburg District Conference there is no heading stating time and place of meeting, and no statement of the Church or denomination to which the Conference belongs. It is stated that the "roll was called, and the following responded:" then comes a reference to a page some thirty pages back, where, among the journals of former years, is found a list of names. On the second day of the Conference it is said, "The roll was called, and the additional brethren responded," and reference made to the same page, making it impossible to determine who or how many were present the first day of the Conference, and who or how many the second. On page 204, after reading that the Conference adjourned, it is stated that the minutes were read and confirmed. On pages 207 and 210 it is said that the Conference convened, but no mention made of the hour or who was in the chair. Mention is also made of the fact of a report on the state of the Church being made, but the report itself does not appear. On page 211 a memorial page is ordered for Rev. B. M. Boozer, and on page 217 we find simply the name in pencil-mark, surrounded by dark lines. The minutes are not signed by the presiding officer and Secretary, but simply by "P. E." and "Secty." The records are not kept in a Conference journal, but in a rather small blank book, nor are they as neatly kept as is desirable.

On the journal of Cokesbury District Conference no roll of members is found, but simply the number present. On page 118 no mention is made of who occupied the chair. The fact that reports were made by committees is recorded, but not the reports themselves. No mention is made of the reading and approving of the minutes of the last session. While the journal is not a model of neatness, it is, in the main, kept in a correct, business-like way.

The journals of Charleston and Greenville District Conferences were not before the committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. D. Smart,
W. H. Kirton,
A. C. Dibble.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes report the following amounts on hand for their publication:

Amount of collections from charges	$436 97
Balance from last year	22 70
Contribution from Rev. W. P. Mouzon	1 00
Total	$460 67

We have examined the report of the publishers of Minutes for the past year, and find it correct.

We nominate William C. Power and H. F. Chrietzberg as Editors, and recommend that they also superintend the publication of the Minutes, and, if possible, to bring them out by the 1st of February.

We recommend the continuance of the assessment plan, and that $525 be assessed upon the various charges for defraying the expenses of the Secretary's office, and for publishing the Minutes of the next session.

J. Walter Dickson, Chairman,
J. B. Traywick,
Alonzo Tanner, Secretary.

MEMOIR.

REV. BENJAMIN M. BOOZER.

Rev. Benjamin Boozer was born in Newberry county, South Carolina, in June, 1850. He was converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, under the preaching of the Rev. J. B. Traywick, in the year 1866. He married Miss Jane Force in the year 1870. After her death, he married Miss Mary A. Granbel, in 1876. He was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference in 1875. He served Gowansville Circuit two years and Black Station Circuit three years. He served the Conference five years, in two charges. His health failed, and at the close of the year 1880 he was placed on the list of supernumeraries. He endured great suffering for several months, when he fell on sleep May 19, 1882. His body lies in the cemetery of Zion Church, Newberry Circuit, South Carolina Conference.

He arose from obscurity to a respectable place among his brethren. He was a good man, an acceptable preacher, a faithful officer, and his services were in favor among the people. He died in the faith, giving testimony both by his life and his lips that his hope of a blissful immortality was unfailing. He leaves a widow and two children.

WILLIAMSTON

FEMALE COLLEGE,

WILLIAMSTON, SOUTH CAROLINA.

In closing the eleventh year of its life and labors, the Williamston Female College tenders thanks to the public for the liberal encouragement it has enjoyed, and looks forward with hope and enthusiasm toward still greater success in the future.

The reader is respectfully invited to examine the following statement of its

LEADING PECULIARITIES:

1. Semi-annual Sessions open on the first Monday in February and August, and continue twenty weeks each. (1) Each Session is followed by a six-weeks' vacation. Teachers and pupils rest before becoming entirely exhausted. (2) Classes are formed in each Department twice a year. New pupils are better classified, and thorough scholarship more easily secured, than on the Annual Plan.

2. The One Study Plan.—Each Session is divided into four "Sections" of five weeks each. During the Mathematics Section each Academic pupil recites three times a day in Arithmetic, and once in Spelling; and each Collegiate, pupil three times in either Algebra, Geometry, or Trigonometry, once in Arithmetic, and once in Spelling. Another Section is devoted to Natural Science another to Languages, and the other to Belles-lettres. After an experience of eleven Sessions, we believe that our labors are much more serviceable to our pupils than under the system of crowding several difficult studies on their attention at once.

3. Graduation in Private.—Being convinced, after extensive experience, that Public Commencements involve great expense of time, labor, and money, without corresponding advantages, we have discontinued them entirely; and we have been gratified to find that this innovation meets with very general favor.

4. Graduation Eight Times a Year.—At the end of either "Section" any pupil who may have finished the Regular course may close her connection with the College by graduation. The advantages of this feature are obvious.

5. A Beautiful Gold Graduation Pin is given instead of a Diploma, if preferred.

6. Tuitional Premiums.—Every regular pupil whose sessional average is eighty per cent., or more, is entitled to a discount of from ten to sixty per cent. from her next Session's regular tuition.

RATES PER SESSION OF TWENTY WEEKS:

Incidental Tax	1 00

LIFE AND LETTERS
—OF—
JAMES OSGOOD ANDREW,

Bishop of the M. E. Church, South.

By the Rev. GEO. G. SMITH.

BISHOP ANDREW was admitted into the South Carolina Conference at Charleston in December, 1812, in a class of 19. This Conference extended from the Indian Nation on the west, then in the center of Georgia, to the Atlantic Ocean, and from Fayetteville, N. C., to St. Mary's, Ga. Much of his early labor was in the State of South Carolina. He married in Charleston; his wife was a rare woman, through whose influence and assistance, he admits, he was prevented from leaving the itinerant ministry. Without her he would probably never have been Bishop. He never located, and died after he had traveled nearly sixty years.

This biography is largely written by himself. It not only tells the story of his life, but gives an account of men and events as he saw them; of Soule, Roszell, Axley, Myers, Russell, etc., of the General Conferences of 1820–24–28–32, before he was made Bishop. It tells of his travels all over America; of the General Conference of 1844, and the division of the Church, etc.; it gives letters to his family from 1813 to 1871; it gives an account of his literary labors and his religious life; a full account of his last days. It has 561 pages; it has two first-class steel-plate engravings of Bishop Andrew, taken at different periods in his life; it is in large, plain type; it is bound neatly in the best muslin; it is sold at $1.50, by mail, postage paid, from Southern Methodist Publishing House,
